COUNTERFEITS FROM CANADA

SPURIOUS COIN BEING CIRCULATED. CONDUCTOR VAUGHAN OF SOUTH SHORE POINTS OUT DEFECT.

Conductor Dan Vaughan, of the South Shore road, who is mayor of the city of Marquette, displayed a counterfeit Canadian "silver" quarter this morning, which he recently received along with other coins in payment of railroad fares.

The counterfeit quarter is the exact counterfeit of the genuine Canadian quarter, with the exception that on the reverse side from the head of King Edward the counterfeit coin has the crown sign in its normal or proper position as it rests on the head, while the genuine coin in the same position the crown is shown upside down. Conductor Vaughan states that he believes that 50-cent and 25-cent Canadian spurious coins are being circulated throughout the upper peninsula. He states that it is his belief that the coins are being made and coined in Canada, and are being smuggled over the border into this country and placed in circulation here instead of in Canada.

Conductor Vaughan has seen quite a number of these spurious coins lately. The counterfeit coin has a lighter ring than the genuine article, but this is not enough to test the genuineness of the coin. The sure test is the position of the small crown on the reverse side. Evidently the counterfeiters in making their dies overlooked this small but very important feature, and thus left a loophole for detection.

ANOTHER ARREST IS MADE.

Martin Masallo Taken in Custody in Connection With Robbery.

As the result of an alleged partial confession from Louis Valerio, arrested Saturday morning on a charge of being implicated in a highway robbery late Friday night, when Peter MacDonald, of Dollar Bay, claims he was robbed of $200, another arrest has been made, Martin Masallo now being in the hands of the sheriff at Houghton. It is said Valerio told the police Saturday that he and Masallo had planned to hold up and rob MacDonald. Acting on this Masallo was arrested and held for examination in Justice Fisher's court tomorrow morning, when Valerio will also be arraigned.

IN THE JUSTICE COURTS.

Hemming Likala will be brought before Justice Jackola today on the charge of desertion. Complaint was made by the defendant's wife.

The case of Joseph Medved charged with slander, was to have been heard in Justice Jackola's court this morning, but it has been indefinitely postponed. Medved was represented in court this morning by Attorney W. J. Galbraith.

Famous Musical Comedian

MISS EMMA WEHLEN.

New York, Oct. 1.—Miss Emma Wehlen, known as "the most beautiful Viennese," who has been the musical comedy sensation of London for the past season, will come to America to take a prominent part in "Marriage a la Carte," the new entertainment by C. M. S. McLellan, who wrote "Leah Kleeschna" and "Judith Zarline," and Ivan Caryll, who has furnished the score for many successes. Miss Wehlen is of the Vienna school, which means she has been thoroughly trained in music, dancing and all forms of the drama. Her managers say she could step from her airy fairy role in "Marriage a la Carte" to that of Ibsen's heroines without injury to the drama. In the musical comedy in which she will make her American appearance, Miss Wehlen will have several changes of costume calculated to best display her attractions. At the opening of the second act, the young woman is seen in the costume of a wire-walker, which, it is said, is not the least effective of her poses.

FREIGHT CAR BROKEN INTO AND ROBBED OF CONTENTS

Some time during last night or early this morning a freight car in the local yards of the Mineral Range road was broken into and packages and boxes rifled of their contents. Marshal Joseph Trudell and Special Officer Beck were notified of the burglary, and after inspecting the car started out on a still hunt for the culprits.

It is understood that the officers have little or no clue to work upon. It is a difficult matter as yet to ascertain just what articles were stolen, until an inventory of the goods received has been made by the shipper or consignee.

Entrance was effected through breaking the seal of the car. The rest was easy. As far as can be gleaned, no suspicious persons were seen loitering around the railroad yards last night. However the officers will make exhaustive inquiries, with a view to securing evidence that will land the parties behind the bars.

KIDNAPPERS APPEAL.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 3.—The appeal of Mrs. Helen Boyle, now serving sentence for her complicity in the kidnapping of Billy Whitt of Sharon, Pa., in 1908, for a new trial came up for hearing in this city today before the judges of the State Superior Court.

There will be a meeting of St. Andrews Society Tuesday Oct. 4th. Business of much importance. All members are earnestly requested to be present.

PLEASED WITH GROWING TRADE

DETROIT WHOLESALE WERE SATISFIED WITH RESULTS OF SUMMER INVASION OF U. PENINSULA.

That the Detroit wholesale businessmen who visited the copper country last summer, boosting trade, are well pleased with the results of their invasion as manifested by the growing trade from this section, is evidenced by the following from the Detroit Journal.

"Detroit trade in the upper peninsula has increased since the steamer Octorara trip of the wholesalers and manufacturers last summer to an extent beyond the expectation or hope of the time, say the live business men who followed up the trip and their observations by endeavor.

"It was said that several wholesalers and manufacturers reorganized their upper peninsula selling forces after the trip, putting on more men and arranging to have one or more representatives reside in upper peninsula cities and give full time with the least waste in traveling hours, to the northern section.

"Edson, Moore & Co., wholesale dry goods, have gone the farthest, it is said, in upper peninsula trade organization. They established right after the trip a selling department, with resident manager, office force and complete lines of samples, in Calumet. Their representative learned that the copper country is closely connected by trolley lines, and that the entire section was coverable from one central office, with the aid of trolley lines, telephones, stenographers and typewriters. This Calumet office is said to be a rather respectable sort of a jobbing establishment of itself.

Calumet Trade Center.
"Then Edson, Moore & Co. followed up this Calumet move with another branch at Ishpeming, where is another resident manager and office force. Marquette and Negaunee are near by, and are covered as well as a large stretch of farther out territory. The territory is more scattered than that served from Calumet, there is not the same trolley service and the manager has to do some traveling, from which the Calumet manager is free. But it is a growing station and is doing business.

"Edson, Moore & Co. are planning to extend the branch system still farther away and over into Wisconsin, with an operating base from some town in the Lake Michigan west shore state back of Menominee and Escanaba. A little sweep of territory could be covered from such a station; it is said, than from a point nearer the Lake Michigan shore of the upper peninsula."

"THE VOLUNTEER ORGANIST."

Small Audience Witnessed Play at the Calumet Theater.

The "Volunteer Organist" was the bill at the Calumet theater matinee and evening on Saturday and although the attendance at the matinee was large, there was a small audience for the evening presentation.

While the play itself, which was presented here for the first time, gave evidence of wonderful possibilities, there was a hint of the amateur in the manner of producing it and the effect was not what it should have been. In a word the play was overdone and the characters failed to impress one as being natural. This was true of those in the leading as well as in the minor roles.

Phil McCarthy in the role of Ebb Utter, leading musician of the village of Cambridge, Vt., Miss Gladys Crolius as Grace Barrett and Thomas Carroll as Handford Scott, the village postmaster, were the most satisfactory. The settings of the play were good particularly in the famous church scene, where Master Willie Golden renders his solo, "The Holy City" in a delightful manner.

SACRED HEART SCHOOLS.

Boys Will Entertain Friends With Interesting Program.

Arrangements have been made by the boys of the Sacred Heart school of Laurium for an interesting program to be given tomorrow evening at the school. The program will consist of dramas, recitations and drills, and vocal and instrumental music. The St. Cecilia orchestra will assist with the program. The program is a very interesting one and there is little doubt that it will be received with pleasure.

SMALL FIRE IN LAURIUM.

A lamp exploded in the Price residence on the Hecla street, Hecla, last evening, causing a small blaze. The Calumet fire department of the C. & H. Mining company responded to the alarm. It was found that the fire was confined to the parlor of the home, and the blaze was quickly extinguished. Some cushions were destroyed, while a piano in the room was badly damaged by fire and water.

RECEPTION FOR REV. WARD.

Arrangements have been made for a reception to be tendered Rev. W. M. Ward, pastor of the Laurium M. E. church, and family on Saturday evening, October 8, at 7:30 o'clock p. m. in honor of the reappointment of Rev. Ward to the Laurium charge for another year. A special program is being prepared for the occasion and all members and friends of the church are invited to be present.

GRAND LODGE DELEGATE.

John Nekervis of Laurium, left Saturday for Scranton, Pa., where he will represent "One and All" lodge, Sons of St. George and the Michigan branch of the order delegate at the national grand lodge convention. Mayor W. Frank James of Hancock, is the second delegate from this state.

LAURIUM

IMPORTANT MEETING OF THE COUNCIL TOMORROW EVENING

At the regular monthly meeting of the Laurium village council tomorrow evening, it is likely that the petition, recently circulated by the members of the civic improvement committee, and extensively signed by residents of Laurium that the open sewers contingent to and in the village be closed, will be presented for formal action.

The health committee of the village has already held an informal meeting to discuss this question, and as a result action is being taken by the village officials to abate the nuisance complained of. Open sewers exist in the village, and it is claimed that these have been responsible for some of the diphtheria, scarlet fever, and other diseases that have broken out in the district during the past few weeks. The open sewer at the corner of First and Ahmeek streets in particular is said to be a great menace to the public health. The officials are giving this sewer attention and a much needed improvement may be expected.

The council will also likely deal with the bill-board ordinance at tomorrow night's meeting. This ordinance calls for the size of bill-boards within the village borders to be reduced to six feet in height instead of ten feet as now. It is claimed by the theatrical men that if the ordinance is put into effect it will be unconstitutional.

CONTRACT TO LAURIUM MAN.

Frank Myers Will Build Stable for County of Keweenaw.

The board of supervisors of Keweenaw county held a special meeting on Wednesday and looked over the bids for the construction of a barn for the county, says the Keweenaw Miner. There were three bidders, they being F. J. Thielman, Frank Bieswanger and Frank Myers. Mr. Myers was the lowest bidder, at $1,850.00 and there was less than $70.00 between the highest and lowest bid.

The old barn and carriage shed will be removed and the new structure will go up the same site as the old one. This is an improvement that has been badly needed for some time.

The board empowered County Clerk Kaiser to enter into a contract with the Michigan Telephone company for the stringing of a new telephone line for the use of the county. This is something there has been a crying need for, for so, these many years, as there is often need of a private line between the county officers and offices of the attorneys of this and the adjoining county. At present this is an impossibility, owing to the fact that there are no less than nine telephones on the line which connects with the court house. When the new line has been strung, there will be not more than two telephones on the line, one at the court house and one at the residence of County Clerk Kaiser.

PICTURES DRAW CROWD.

Film of Jeffries-Johnson Fight To Be Shown Tonight.

Picture films of the Jeffries-Johnson fight at Reno, Nevada, July 4th will be shown at the Palestra this evening.

Concerning the exhibition of these pictures at Marquette last Friday, the Marquette Mining Journal says:—"It would appear from the pictures that the charge that Jeffries 'laid down' in the latter part of the fight is without foundation. From the first round to the finish the pictures show that Johnson was quicker on his feet, that he used the better ring generalship, and after the first few rounds it is evident that Johnson is destined to win, barring a chance blow from Jeffries. Nevertheless, Jeffries fought gamely throughout and in the fourteenth round forced the fighting until his leg muscles gave out. In the fifteenth and final round, he felt an easy prey to Johnson's terrific face blows. Johnson's superior ring generalship is shown by his success in ending each round at or near his own corner.

"Among the most enjoyable of the pictures are those showing the city of Reno, the arrival of the crowds, close hand views of the principal buildings and streets, all of which are thronged with people. There are numerous scenes at Jeffries' training quarters, in which the boxer is shown sparring with his trainers, and also characteristic pictures of the many prominent pugilists at the Jeffries camp. Numerous views of the immense crowd at the ring side and the events immediately preceding the big battle were also very interesting. All of the pictures were carefully explained by a lecturer, who accompanies the fight pictures from city to city.

BROTHER DEAD IN WEST.

M. C. Driscoll of Calumet is in Eschra, Utah, where he attended the funeral recently of his brother, the late James Driscoll of that city. He was accompanied to the western city by his brother C. B. Driscoll, an official of the Oliver Mining company. Speaking of the funeral the Herald-Republican of Salt Lake City, states that nearly 500 persons attended, and that business was suspended the entire day at Eschra where the deceased was formerly postmaster, in respect to the dead.

WHAT IS THE USE OF SAVING?

In the first place it is a duty we owe to ourselves. We cannot always be producers; old age is sure to come; sickness, accident or misfortune may come at any time and cut off, temporarily or permanently, our productive powers, therefore we should provide for the future rainy day or for old age by saving during the days of our greatest productive power.

Fathers may thus provide for wives and families, or for the future education of their children. Children should form the habit of saving, thus establishing a correct business habit and laying a foundation for future success in business or a profession.

The obligation of saving is an ever present one, which cannot be disregarded without resulting misfortune.
